

PANEL DISCUSSION:

IT4All: Opportunity for Everyone

May 24, 2018

Hotel Roca, Južná trieda 117, Košice

Program

10:30 - 11:00	Registration
11:00 - 11:10	Opening: Laura Dittel, Director of Carpathian Foundation
11:10 - 1:00 PM	Panel 1: Are IT employers ready to offer job opportunity to everyone? Are schools in the region ready to integrate pupils with special needs? Moderator: Lívia Gaľová, T-Systems Slovakia, Košice  Martin Džbor, Strategic Development and Innovations, T-Systems Slovakia, Košice, SK Gyöngyi Tóthné Harasztovics, HR Department, IT Services Hungary, Debrecén, H Viera Juríková, Dpt. of Schools and School Facilities, Košice Self-governing Region, SK Zuzana Sieber, HR Department, Ness KDC, Košice, SK Denisa Veselská, IBM Client Innovation Center, IBM Slovakia, SK
1:00 - 2:00 PM	Lunch
2:00 - 2:30 PM	Panel 2: Are job seekers with special needs ready to integrate with IT work environment? Moderator: Barbara Kollárová, Carpathian Foundation  Samuel Andrejčík, IT4ALL project participant, student of Technical University, Košice, SK Ján Podolinský, Union of Blind and Visually Impaired Košice, IT4ALL project participant, SK Rastislava Varsányiová, PhD. (social psychologist), H.R.M.C. Košice, SK Rep of T-Systems Slovakia, Dual Education, T-Systems Slovakia, Košice, SK Martin Stolz, Christliches Jugenddofwerk Deutschlands, Frechen, DE
3:30 - 4:00 PM	Conclusion of the event

About IT4ALL Project: The project goal is to foster employability and inclusion of people with fewer opportunities (physically disabled and socially disadvantaged) and facilitate their transition to the labour market through an inclusive and diversity sensitive Career Development Model that includes 2 assessment and development tools: VPAC – Vocational Potential Assessment Center and EDC – Elevator Development Center.

<http://karpatskanadacia.sk/en/itrampoline-for-all-2/>

Projekt ITrampolína pre všetkých je spolufinancovaný z programu Erasmus+, KA2: strategické partnerstvá.

